HORSE IN THE MOONLIGHT

by Emmett O'Keefe.

First Prize-Winning Entry in the 1994 Poetry Competition.

Pallid horse in the moonlight stands at the end of a silver rein where tethers are merely moonbeams. Does he dream of a life again, galloping free on the uplands, fire in his eye and youth in his feet, dux of his school at the racetrack, strongest of heart and fleetest of fleet?

Days like a drumroll of triumph, the rush to the finishing line, the heart-pounding tumult of winning, the accolades, worship sublime, the frenzied click of the cameras, the blaring brass of the bands, the victory shouts for the winner, the shattering clapping of hands.

Are these the things that he dreams of, drowsing under the sky?
Dull is the ring of his hoof beat, dead is the fire in his eye, gone the caress of his strapper along with his coat dappled grey,
his coat now the colour of moonlight, its sheen since faded away.

One time the darling of thousands, the hero, the victor acclaimed, eulogised, ribboned and feted, toasted and petted and named,
"The horse of the year, of the decade," headlines declaring his name, but he stands alone in the moonlight, the watery moonlight of fame.

Age is the final winner, age brings defeat at the track, too old to compete in the show ring, too old now to work as a hack.
Pallid horse in the moonlight, chill is the breeze and the stones are hard, alone with the moon and the shadows.

The shadows are long in a knackery yard.

President's Message

1995 marks the 75th Anniversary of the Nimbin Show. The Society has been given wonderful support over the years in sponsorships, voluntary work to help maintain the showground, and financial assistance from the business community for which we express our appreciation.

The North Coast has suffered three years of drought and it is hoped that the near future will bring adequate rain to all areas to ensure the viability of the farmers of the district.

Innovations in our recent shows, especially this year, have created renewed interest in the Nimbin Show, and it is hoped that it will continue to prosper and receive the support it deserves from the whole of the Nimbin Community.

G.W. Soward, President.

THE ABOVE MUST BE RETURNED WITH ENTRY FORM OTHERWISE ENTRY WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.

Failure to complete this declaration for stock owners within the TQA area will mean that the entry will not be accepted.

All cattle will be inspected on arrival at the showground and will not be allowed onto grounds with any type of tick (including grass ticks). Please note that it may take more than one treatment to free animals of all ticks. Please do not request Board of Tick Control staff to carry out the required treatment as they are unable to supply staff,

REGULATIONS FOR EXHIBITORS OUTSIDE THE TICK QUARANTINE AREA
These remain the same as in previous years — a permit from the exhibitor's local Pastures Protection Board is all that is required for entry. Entry through the Tick Gates must be made in daylight hours and if returning within five (5) days only a spraying is needed. Please see the Chief Steward of the section for arrangements.

PLEASE NOTE: Cattle with any grass ticks will not be allowed on grounds.
